

Living with Hope
Two Short Plays about the Cycle of Addiction

SDSU's Experimental Theatre
Thursday - Saturday, March 16-18 at 7:30 PM
& Sunday, March 19 at 2:00 PM

FREE and Open to the Public

Other People's Kids* by Mabelle Reynoso

Four teenagers become entangled with meth, and their lives and families are changed forever. Based on the life experiences of San Diegans whose lives have been impacted by meth addiction.

Commissioned by Playwrights Project, in partnership with SAY San Diego, San Diego County Probation,
and the US Attorney's Office as part of the campaign:

DO SOMETHING. . .
... about meth.

Finding Our Way* by Out of the Yard Playwrights
at Richard J. Donovan Correctional Facility
A kaleidoscopic look at addiction from first time use through recovery.

Developed by Playwrights Project in partnership with the William James Association, as an Arts in Corrections program of the California Arts Council and the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation.

Produced by Playwrights Project and SDSU's School of Theatre, Film, and Television
Directed by Peter Cirino \ Performed by SDSU Theatre Students
Each performance features both plays followed by a panel discussion.
Recommended for ages 16 and up

Reservations Required:

(858) 384-2970
write@playwrightsproject.org

SD Commission for Arts and Culture

WILLIAM JAMES ASSOCIATION
PRISON ARTS PROJECT

The James Irvine
Foundation

CALIFORNIA
ARTS COUNCIL

McCuskey
Institute

