

Playwrights Project and LEAP
are proud to present...

Playwrights Project

Telling Stories

Giving Voice to Foster Youth

There are things you keep so deep down in your heart and mind...I feel better after talking openly about my life.

~ Storyteller

Performance and Discussion of a new play about foster youth

Tuesday, June 23

10:00 am to 11:30 am

Central Library

820 E Street, Downtown San Diego

3rd Floor Auditorium

Space is limited. Reserve your seat by contacting Playwrights Project
(619) 239-8222

www.playwrightsproject.org

Jennifer, Lisetta, Bianca, and Esther are four amazing young women from LEAP, a program of San Diego Foster Youth Initiative, who worked with Playwrights Project's teaching artist Katie Harroff to create Files, a play about their real life experiences in the foster care system. We invite youth and adults involved in foster care to listen to a rehearsed reading of the play and participate in a dialog to help guide the story collection process and shape future performances.

Playwrights Project is a nonprofit arts education organization promoting literacy, creativity and communication skills through drama-based activities, with an emphasis on inspiring youth and seniors.

Telling Stories is made possible by The San Diego Foundation's Art Works Program and the following funds of The San Diego Foundation: The James Irvine Foundation, Colonel Frank C. Wood Memorial Fund, Ariel W. Coggeshall Fund, Charles B. Cram Fund, Myron Feinberg Discretionary Fund, and the Mary E. Hield and Robert R. Hield Endowment Fund.

